The annual conference of the fifth Sunday school district of Anderson county was held yesterday afternoon and evening at the St. John's church The conference was a great success large crowds being present at both sessions and the speeches especially interesting and entertaining.

The meeting place for the next conforence was not decided on, but the election of officers was held, Rev. D. W. Dodge was chosen as president for the coming year and Mr. Samuel L. Prince was elected secretary of the

The afternoon session was opened by a prayer and praise service led by Dr. W. H. Frazer, pastor cf the First Presb, terian church of this city. This service was followed by an address by the president of the district, ev. D. W. Dodge who made his talk on the purpose of the district organization.

Dr. A. L. Smethers made a short talk on the ten banner Sunday school points.

Statistical reports from delegates to the conference were very satisfactory and made an excellent showing for the past year's work.

the past year's work.

Five minute talks by members of the Sunday schools, teachers and others occupied the next hour. These talks were informal ones and were mostly of personal experiences. They were interesting and enjoyable, "Winning and Holding the Teens" was the subject of Mr. Lon C. Palmer served any of the Alphana State Sunday.

secretary of the Alabama State Sunday School association. Mr. Palmer told of how hard it was to hold a boy or girl in their teens in the Sunday schools. His talk was interesting and was of great value to many of the Sunday school workers.

A conference on Sunday school problems was held by Mr. Palmer and Mr. R. D. Webb, state secretary. This was another sort of experience meeting and questions pertaining to the work were asked and answered.

Pledges for the state and county work were then made. The mem-bers of the district came forth loyally to take up this work voluntarily.

The evening or night service started with a song and praise service led by Rev. J. M. Garrison of the A. P. P. church of this city. A collection was taken to defray the expenses of the conference. Mr. H. B. Fitzgerald sang a solo and the address of the evening, scheduled to be delivered by Mr. Webb was de-livered by Mr. Palmer. Th subject of this address was "The New Sunday School Idea."

"The school in the church and the "The school in the church and the church in the chool was to subject chosen by Dr. John E. White, the pastor of the First Baptist church of this city. Dr. White's address was particularly enjoyed, it being voted one of the best of the entire conference.

The meeting was adjourned shortly after 9:30 o'clock. The place of the next meeting will be decided by a committee in the near future.
